Section A - Reading (20 marks)

A1. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:

At last I returned home very frightened, looking behind me after every two or three steps, mistaking every bush and tree to be a man. When I came to my cave (which I called my castle), I ran inside it, as if I was being chased. I do not remember whether I used the ladder or went in by the hole in the rock, which I called the door. I ran for cover, faster than any animal could run. I did not sleep that night. The more I thought about what I had seen, the more afraid I became. I thought it could be one of the savages of the mainland who had wandered out to the sea, in a small boat.
